

Air Waves

Summer 2010

CRIS Radio Announces 13th Annual Golf Classic

Join CRIS Radio at its 13th Annual Golf Classic on Wednesday, Sept. 22 at the Manchester Country Club. This major fundraising event for CRIS Radio promises to be a great day of golf.

A flat screen TV and a mint-condition Huskies NCAA championship 1999 UConn men's souvenir basketball will be among the items featured at a drawing conducted at the dinner.

Lunch and dinner is included with the player fee of $145.

For more information and for sponsor and registration forms, visit www.crisradio.org or call CRIS Radio at 860-527-8000.

Members of the U.S. Blind Golf Association will participate in CRIS Golf Classic in September. At left, John Casolo of the association, with his caddy Matt, are pictured at a previous CRIS tournaments.

Officials, Volunteers Celebrate New Broadcast Center

Photo / Steve Laschever

From left, state Sen. Edith Prague, Gov. M. Jodi Rell, Comptroller Nancy Wyman and Windsor Mayor Donald Trinks celebrate the official opening of CRIS Radio's new broadcast center in Windsor at a ribbon-cutting ceremony on May 17.

CRIS Commemorates 30 Years

Nearly 100 people turned out for CRIS Radio's 30th anniversary celebration at the Hartford Marriott Rocky Hill on May 2.

Attorney General Richard Blumenthal and media personalities — Brad Davis, WDRC; Scot Haney, WFSB; Beth Bradley, formerly with WDRC; and Jim MacPherson, "The Car Doctor" at WTIC — participated in the festivities. Father John P. Gatzak, executive director of the Office of Radio & Television of the Archdiocese of Hartford, offered the invocation, and volunteers Bradley, MacPherson and Jason Ellsworth spoke about their experiences as CRIS volunteers.

Photo / C. R. Lang

Brad Davis, WDRC radio personality, at left, and Scot Haney, WFSB meteorologist, team up at CRIS Radio's 30th anniversary.

The event also included a multimedia presentation, developed by event sponsor Rider Productions, that captured 30 years of CRIS Radio's milestones.

The Bandstand Quartet entertained the attendees as they arrived. The celebration concluded with the announcement of door prizes by Davis and Haney.